HERITAGE DONCASTER'S EDUCATION TEAM PROVIDE ENGAGING AND IMMERSIVE LEARNING EXPERIENCES ON A VARIETY OF TOPICS SUPPORTING THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM. OUR EDUCATION OFFICERS ENCOURAGE CHILDREN TO GET HANDS-ON WITH HISTORY, SCIENCE, AND ART.

We currently teach from the beautiful Georgian country house, Cusworth Hall & Park, and can also bring workshops into schools. From 2020, workshops will also take place in our education suite within Doncaster's brand new Central Library and Museum in the heart of the town's cultural quarter. Until then, our Doncaster Museum workshops will be taught from Cusworth Hall or an alternative location. Please get in touch with our team for more information.

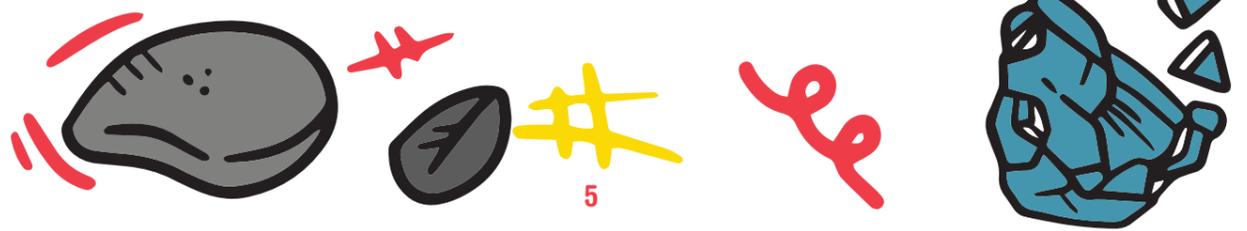

Cusworth Hall & Park

A beautiful Georgian country house, Cusworth Hall is set in acres of historic parkland featuring play areas and lakes.

The Hall is home to our social history museum, charting how people have lived, worked and socialised in Doncaster throughout the past three centuries.

Our Victorian classroom and kitchen provide opportunities for pupils to immerse themselves in history in a fun and unique learning environment.
